Muhammad Yousuf ALIMOHAMED
2023 United Nations – Nippon Foundation Fellow

muhammad.alimohamed@un.org
+351 93 649 8512
Born 15 September 1993

CAREER

- United Nations Fellow 2023
- State Counsel, Attorney-General's Office of Mauritius
  Ministry of Justice 2018-23
- Independent practice at the Mauritian Bar 2017-18

ACADEMICS

- Called to the Bar of Mauritius 2017
- Called to the Bar of England and Wales
  Member of the Honourable Society of Lincoln's Inn 2016
- BPTC (Bar Professional Training Course) - Nottingham Law School 2016
- Associate of King's College London 2016
- LLB (Hons) - King's College London
  Dickson Poon Scholar 2015

NOTES

- As State Counsel, I advised the government of Mauritius on all matters, including on law of the sea. I drafted legislation and regulations for the National Assembly. I conducted litigation on behalf of government in cases involving, inter-alia, contested elections, judicial reviews, and the interpretation of various constitutional provisions.