PUBLICATIONS

Innovación metodológica en la enseñanza práctica del Derecho: clínica legal sobre derechos humanos y empresas de la Universidad de Sevilla

Online ISSN: 2386-4885
https://revistes.ub.edu/index.php/RED – 2022
Publisher: Education and Law Review.

This work focuses on the review of the teaching methodologies implemented throughout the academic years 2018/19 and 2019/20 in the practical subject Legal Clinic on Human Rights and Business of the Faculty of Law of the University of Seville as a specific result of the Legal Clinic teaching innovation project. The work reflects on the need to transform practical teaching processes of Law and how clinical education can be incorporated into them. Subsequently, the specific context in which the innovation project under analysis is deployed is described, focusing on those existing previous conditions and delimiting the practice subjects.

El Plan de Acción Nacional sobre Empresas y Derechos Humanos desde una perspectiva digital

IDSBN: 978-84-1308-023-9
2019
Publisher: Aranzadi Thomson Reuters
Book Chapter: pp. 269 - 289
The National Action Plan on Business and Human Rights has not incorporated the digital approach and its cross-cutting impact in the “Protect, Respect and Remedy” Framework. The effectiveness of the NAP in the field of human rights and business will depend on many factors, including, from our perspective, designing and including an ambitious digital and technological approach. In our study, we wanted to contribute some ideas and proposals for improvement of the National Action Plan on Business and Human Rights, sticking to the relevance of adopting a multidisciplinary approach that encompasses technology and human rights.
